Hi Jennifer,

I've landed at TPA and am making my way to you all presently. Please verify that you still want to me to come now, or if you have a preference for later.

Jason,

Wow! Sorry to hear that. I sincerely appreciate you making all efforts to join us tomorrow afternoon. Switching is fine. Let me know if I need to send FO Neil Godbole any confirmation.

We'll see you tomorrow.

Thank you for the heads up, and hopefully you can get some rest.

Hi Jennifer,

Unfortunately, I did not make it back to PIE today and spent the day getting bumped as I tried to get home.

That said, I will not be back in PIE until tomorrow morning. As such, First Officer Neil Godbole and I have agreed to switch interview times if that's acceptable with you.

I apologize for any inconvenience. My original travel plans back home were cancelled somehow and the company's effort to rebook me made for a 20 hour long day that would not have contributed to a fruitful interview tomorrow. Please try to understand, there hasn't been much sleep for me as of late.

As always, call me with any questions.

Respectfully,

Jason

Hi Jason,

Yes we will all be present at the same time to listen in but if you'd like to speak individually with any of us we can certainly arrange that at the end as well.

Any thing we can learn, we're all ears.

Thanks Jason,

Hi Jennifer,

Will I be meeting with all of you at the same time? Will you be present, or will you simply orchestrate the meetings?
I'll have some very blunt comments and questions.
